NIKET KARAJAGI is the Founder Director of Atyaasaa Consulting Private Limited, Pune. A Mechanical Engineer by education and before founding Atyaasaa in 1999, Niket had a rich corporate experience of over 12 years in various senior management positions in brands both in India and overseas. Niket has undergone training in the USA on "Process of Selling a Change" and is a Master Practitioner of Neurolinguistic Programming (NLP) certified by The National Federation of Neurolinguistic Psychology, USA. Additionally, he has 33 international certifications to his credit.

Since 1999, Niket has clocked over 25,000 hours of consulting and training experience while having contributed to over 175 organizations worldwide. He has trained and coached well over 2,00,000 leaders and managers globally in various behavioural and management areas. He has designed and implemented over 120 training titles and OD interventions for organization scale-up, change and transformation.

"Atyaasaa" which is a Vedic word meaning "Facing the Truth". Atyaasaa, is a strategic human development partner to top notch brands worldwide. Atyaasaa as a brand is a journey of "Awakening Human Excellence" through training, coaching and business consulting.

His passion of contributing for a national cause at the grass root level led to creation of Atyaasaa Foundation in 2011 which empowers the under privileged, small and medium scale enterprises and academic institutions through the body of knowledge created by Atyaasaa.

In 2018, AtyaasaaOnline was launched for the delivery of 30 key skill and behavioural programmes transcending the limitations of space and time.

Late Shri. B. M. Gogte
Industrialist
Philanthropist

Shri. B.M. Gogte had humble beginnings and rose to prominence on the industrial map of India. Shri. Balkrishna Madhav Gogte was born on 16th September, 1916, in Tembu Village near Karad in Satara District.

After completing his education he joined the Belagavi Bar in 1935. He started Motor Insurance Co. and thereafter he took up Export Trade of Minerals via Gogte Minerals of Redi, Maharashtra, from where he reached great heights.

He was closely associated with nationally known bodies such as SICOM, and NITIE. He was a member of the Board of East India Hotels, and many other companies. He was a Patron of Karnatak Law Society (KLS).

Raosaheb was an educationist and philanthropist of high order. He contributed to a large extent for the development of education in Belagavi District as else-where in the country. He gave munificent donations to Karnatak Law Society. In recognition of his contributions, KLS named the Commerce College established in 1954, Gogte College of Commerce, and the Engineering College, established in 1979, Gogte Institute of Technology.
